

Jimmy Swaggart Expositor's Study Bible: THE LIE From SATAN!

The Jimmy Swaggart Expositor's Study Bible is "of the Devil"!
It speaks "THE LIE" from SATAN as though it were God's Truth.
And here are the facts that prove it:

"From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." (Matthew 16:21-24 KJV)

In the preceding Scripture, Jesus announced His imminent suffering and death on the cross. The time was near for Jesus to fulfill God's 4000 year old promise of "The Messiah" (Genesis 3:15) who would take away the sin of the world so that all who trust in Him might be saved from the everlasting fiery torments of Hell. What an awesome time in the history of mankind!

But yet Peter rebuked Jesus for His words: "Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee."

And then Jesus rebuked Peter for speaking that LIE of THE DEVIL: "Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men."

In fact Jesus made it abundantly clear that not only must He suffer, but each and every person who puts their trust in Him must suffer as well: “If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.”

“Suffering” is a necessary ingredient in becoming one with Jesus:

“Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution...But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.” (2 Timothy 3:12; 1 Peter 4:13 KJV)

“Suffering” is an absolute necessity for Christians, howbeit, “suffering” is not what most would choose to do. And, of course, that is the reason Jesus had to be emphatically dogmatic about it:

“He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.” (John 12:25 KJV)

The word “lose” in John 12:25 was translated from the Greek word “apollumi”, which, according to the Strong’s Greek Dictionary, means “to destroy fully (reflexively to perish, or lose), literally or figuratively: - destroy, die, lose, mar, perish.”

And with that in mind, the following is a proper interpretation of John 12:25:

“He that loveth his life more than the will of God shall lose it eternally; and he that hateth his life in comparison of the will of God shall preserve it.” (John Wesley’s Explanatory Notes)

That’s God’s Truth! But yet the following is what Jimmy Swaggart says in his Expositor’s Study Bible commentary notes on John 12:25:

“hits at the very heart of man’s problem; it could be paraphrased, ‘He who loves self shall not see fulfillment’ – refers to putting self last, and Christ first in all things.”

You see Jimmy Swaggart says that “He that loveth his life shall lose it” could be paraphrased “He who loves self shall not see fulfillment”, but just what has “lack of fulfillment” got to do with “everlasting destruction”?

JOHN 12

25 He who loves his life shall lose it (hits at the very heart of man's problem; it could be paraphrased, “He who loves self shall not see fulfillment”); and he who hates his life in this world shall keep it unto Life Eternal (refers to putting self last, and Christ first in all things).

There is absolutely no correlation between the word “fulfillment” and “everlasting death”! Hell is the total absence of any type of human fulfillment or satisfaction!

“Suffering” in the burning fires of Hell for all eternity is what “lose it” is all about, and that’s what awaits those who please themselves (my will) instead of God (His Will). Christians must “hate” whatever “desires, interest, and good intentions” they might have that are not the Will of the Father. Christians must “die” to the “desires of self”, which is in no way the same as “putting self last” as Jimmy Swaggart has stated.

So, why did Jimmy Swaggart “neuter” John 12:25? Well, this next Scripture will give us the answer:

“And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.” (Mark 8:34 KJV)

That’s what the Word of God says, and the following is a proper interpretation thereof:

“And when he called the people to hear a truth of the last importance, and one that equally concerned them all. Let him deny himself, his own will, in all things small and great, however pleasing, and that continually: And take up his cross; embrace the will of God, however painful, daily, hourly, continually. Thus only can he follow me in holiness to glory.” (John Wesley’s Explanatory Notes)

That’s God’s Truth! However, the following is what Jimmy Swaggart says in his Expositor’s Study Bible commentary notes on Mark 8:34:

“speaks of an interval of some period of time between His rebuke of Peter in this present statement – deny his own strength, ability, talent, power, and carnal intellect – not suffering as many suppose, but rather the benefit of the Cross – implying that Jesus cannot be followed, unless it’s by the way of the Cross.”

So why does Jimmy Swaggart continually “deny” the facts? Why did Jimmy Swaggart list all sorts of things that Believers must “deny” (“strength, ability, talent, power, and carnal intellect”) but yet leave out the one thing that’s all encompassing – “SELF!!!”?

MARK 8

34 And when He had called the people unto Him with His Disciples also, He said unto them (speaks of an interval of some period of time between His rebuke of Peter in this present statement), Whosoever will come after Me, let him deny himself (deny his own strength, ability, talent, power, and carnal intellect), and take up his Cross (not suffering as many suppose, but rather the benefits of the Cross), and follow Me (implying that Jesus cannot be followed, unless it’s by the way of the Cross).

Well, I’ll tell you why. One of Jimmy Swaggart’s famous one-liners is “God would never tell you to do something that you don’t want to do!” And of course that’s the very same reason Jimmy Swaggart has excluded the “suffering” word from his own “salvation walk vocabulary” and the Expositor’s Study Bible as well – “not suffering as many suppose, but rather the benefit of the Cross.”

The Holy Bible – the Word of God – plainly states that we must die to what we want (our will) in order to do what He wants (God’s Will), and this entire process of “suffering” through the “denial of self” in “obedience to God” is described as “taking up the cross”. “Our cross” is “the cross” that we must all bear. But yet “the Cross” that Jimmy Swaggart keeps referring to in his bible is the cross that Jesus bore. In other words Jesus did all the suffering for us at “His Cross”. Jimmy Swaggart says that Jesus’ command – “Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me” – does not mean “suffering as many suppose”!

But let's not stop there. Here's another Scripture that proves Jimmy Swaggart speaks the "no suffering" LIE from SATAN in his Expositor's Study Bible:

*"It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself."* (2 Timothy 2:11-13 KJV)

That's what the Word of God says, and the following is a proper interpretation of verse 12:

"If we deny him - To escape suffering for him." (John Wesley's Explanatory Notes)

That's what the Word of God says, but yet this is what "thus saith Jimmy Swaggart" in his Expositor's Study Bible commentary notes on 2 Timothy 2:12:

"the 'suffering' has to do with 'fighting the good fight of faith'; to 'reign' means to 'reign as a king,' so the stakes are very high! – refers to denying what He did for us at the Cross"

Jimmy Swaggart says that to "deny him (Jesus)" means "to denying what He did for us at the Cross", but of course "the Cross" that Jimmy Swaggart is referring to is "the Cross to which Jesus was nailed" and not "our cross" by which we must suffer.

II TIMOTHY 2

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him (the "suffering" has to do with "fighting the good fight of Faith"; to "reign" means to "reign as a king," so the stakes are very high!): if we deny Him, He also will deny us (refers to denying what He did for us at the Cross):

Jimmy Swaggart is wrong!

In fact, Jimmy Swaggart is dead wrong!

In order to follow Jesus, we must be willing to "suffer" – in whatever way required – or else we will "deny" Him and He will "deny" us. And the following Scripture confirms it:

"Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples." (Matthew 26:33-35 KJV)

Now can the picture be any clearer than that? Peter claimed that he would "suffer" an agonizing death on a cross along with Jesus before he would ever "deny" Him. Peter was talking about suffering real physical torment "himself". This was "the cross" that Peter was required to bear, but

MATTHEW 26

33 Peter answered and said unto Him, Though all men shall be offended because of you, yet will I never be offended (boastful pride!).

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto you, That this night, before the rooster crows, you shall deny Me thrice.

35 Peter said unto Him, Though I should die with You, yet will I not deny You. Likewise also said all the Disciples (all made boastful claims).

yet the following is what Jimmy Swaggart had to say in his Expositor's Study Bible commentary notes on Matthew 26:33-35:

"boastful pride! – all made boastful claims"

That was absolutely all that Jimmy Swaggart had to say about Peter denying Christ. And of course the very obvious reason that Jimmy Swaggart didn't elaborate was because this Scripture diametrically opposes his belief that we don't have to "suffer" for Jesus in order to be saved.

Jimmy Swaggart preaches/teaches "another gospel" because Jimmy Swaggart preaches/teaches "another cross" which is THE LIE from SATAN.

"I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ." (Galatians 1:6-10 KJV)

Jimmy Swaggart and his Expositor's Study Bible will not only doom his soul to Hell for all eternity but multiple thousands of others as well. But does anybody care???

It's not too late to turn Jimmy Swaggart back to God's Truth, but is anyone willing to help?

"Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins." (James 5:19-20 KJV)
