

Jimmy Swaggart And The “Field Of Miracles” (Sal Maglie Stadium – August 9, 2013)

So, Jimmy Swaggart wants to play ball again. I mean, after all, he had a pretty good batting average until he got a little self-righteous and “struck out” with the prostitutes.

You see the first time Jimmy Swaggart got caught “whoring around” was in 1987. And it was the overwhelmingly negative reaction resulting from this particular incident that brought about his blatantly ambiguous “moral failure” confession: “I have sinned against you, my Lord.”

However, Jimmy Swaggart wasn’t quite so repentant when he got caught four (4) years later with “prostitute #2. In fact the overwhelmingly negative response resulting from this particular incident brought about Jimmy Swaggart’s scathing reproof to any and all that might question his hypocritical lifestyle of preaching against sin while enjoying the fruits thereof: “The Lord told me it's flat none of your business!”

Without a doubt, Jimmy Swaggart loved his sin more than he loved God!

So from that point on, the “#1 World Evangelist” sold his plane and stopped his crusades in order to rebuild his credibility “with” and cash flow “from” the people of the world. And a very important part of this re-building process was his re-writing of God’s Word (The King James Version Holy Bible) in order to excuse his unrepentant sex sins.

The Jimmy Swaggart Expositor’s Study Bible contains Jimmy Swaggart’s diabolical “Message Of The Cross” that teaches an “unregenerate salvation” where the “Believer in Christ” is saved “in” their sin and not “from” their sin. And that’s the reason Jimmy Swaggart’s 1987 post-prostitute confession will still hold true today:

“I’ve been doing this for twenty-eight years. I have chased prostitutes in every city where I’ve held revival.”

Jimmy Swaggart is back on the road with his “evangelistic revival crusades”... and he’s taking it to a whole new level! Lock up the women and children! Nothing will be safe! (See “<http://www.fmh-child.org/JimmySwaggart.html>” for more revealed Truth.)
