The following letter-form was brought about as a means of teaching my children the Word of God through the mail. And of course, quite naturally so, that's the reason I begin these letters with "Dear Children" and end them with "Love Dad". So for the rest of you who participate in these weekly messages, please keep their original intended purpose in mind.

13 October, 2013

Dear Children,

In our last sermonet – “Jimmy Swaggart's Child Molestation, And Walt Mills' Unforgiveness!” – we brought to light some very dark and disturbing truths about two (2) well-known evangelists. And, as it concerned the evangelist Jimmy Swaggart in particular, we once again shed God's "Light" on his "child molesting" spirit. (See “Jimmy Swaggart The Real Child Abuser!”, “Attorney Hunter Lundy Exposes Jimmy Swaggart's Pedophilic Tendencies!”, and “Jimmy Swasggart And His Appetite For Children!” for more on the subject.)

So God used Walt Mills to help us write last week's sermonet on Jimmy Swaggart's child molestation, and he's also going to help us write this week's message on “Jimmy Swaggart And His Murderous Spirit!” Because it was on the 25th of August 2013, that Walt Mills said the following while preaching his sermon on “Unforgiveness” at Jimmy Swaggart's Family Worship Center during the Sunday night service (http://www.fmh-child.org/video/JSM\_WaltMillsKill.wmv):

“I wanted him dead, and I wanted to do it to him. Brother Swaggart says, (laughter), he says, ‘Sometimes I've seen people that you'd like for them to just meet up with an eighteen-wheeler.’ And I thought, I'd want be the one driving the eighteen-wheeler. (Laughter.)”

Now did you get that? Walt Mills and Jimmy Swaggart – two (2) professing followers of Jesus Christ – have the desire to take care of (kill/eradicate) a few people through the “blunt force trauma” that's produced by an “eighteen-wheeler”. And with that thought in mind, the following one word describes it best:

Macabre – to dwell on the subject of death or violence in such a way that is gruesome, shocking, and horrifying to the beholder.

The Walt Mills and Jimmy Swaggart “death wish” is macabre to say the least! In fact it was early one morning in 1995, as I was traveling I-10 on my way to work, that I personally witnessed the gruesome reality of what happens to a man that gets run over by an “eighteen-wheeler”.

You see the way it all came down was that I was traveling west on the Interstate as this eighteen-wheeler was traveling east. The eastbound side of the Interstate was under construction and had been barricaded off into one lane. As the eighteen-wheeler approached I watched in horror as a highway construction workers climbed over the cement barriers into the single lane of traffic. What happened next was surreal to say the least. The eighteen-wheeler locked his breaks, and the smoke poured from beneath his tires, but it was all to no avail. By the time the big rig had come to a complete stop the construction worker lay mid way under the length of the trailer. Five (5) of the eighteen (18) tires had run over his body which now had things that belonged inside of him laying outside of him on the pavement.

Macabre is the only way to express what I remember seeing some eighteen (18) years ago as that eighteen-wheeler annihilated a highway construction worker on the Interstate! But yet Donnie Swaggart, Frances Swaggart, and a host of others in the “preachers gallery” at Family Worship Center, laughed out loud as Walt Mills described his and Jimmy Swaggart’s desire to play “terminator” on a few folks with the help of an eighteen-wheeler. I mean, just watch the video closely and you’ll see it for yourself!

So what’s wrong with this picture??? I mean, after all, it appears that none of these Christian “mockers” has any idea what “spirit” has control of them:

“And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.” (Luke 9:51-56 KJV)

You see Jesus rebuked James and John for their “murderous spirit”, and He then gave the standard by which “all” His followers must live: “For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them.”

And with the preceding Words of Jesus in mind, it’s easy to see that there was a “spirit of murder” in control of Walt Mills and Jimmy Swaggart (along with all the laughing mockers in the “preachers gallery” and congregation) during that Sunday night service back on the 25th of August 2013! In fact the Jimmy Swaggart Ministries has been overflowing with this same “spirit of murder” for a very long time!!! And, of course, that’s the reason for today’s message – “Jimmy Swaggart And His Murderous Spirit!” – which will be focused on the man for which the Jimmy Swaggart Ministries is named.

Now, the earliest record that I have of Jimmy Swaggart and his “murderous spirit” dates back to the 23rd of June 1984 when he preached his “The Real Child Abusers” message during a crusade in Anchorage, Alaska. In fact Jimmy Swaggart started out that same message by giving way-too-many of the gory details of how infanticide has been committed on children down through the ages. I mean it was downright macabre to say the least, but yet Jimmy Swaggart seemed to get enjoyment through the telling of the story (http://www.fmh-child.org/audio/JS\_Real\_Child\_Abuser.mp3).

However, it was later on in the message that Jimmy Swaggart showed his hand by giving the “Devil horns” in “allegiance to Satan” concerning this thing about “child abuse”. In other words, Jimmy Swaggart was actually a practitioner of that which he was preaching against, and the Devil made him admit it... thus the title of our sermon that dealt with this same issue: “Jimmy Swaggart The Real Child Abuser!”.

But more importantly, as it concerns this message for today, it was during the segment of “The Real Child Abusers” sermon, that dealt with drug pushers using children as a part of their sales team, that Jimmy Swaggart made the following “macabre” statement for the whole wide world to hear (http://www.fmh-child.org/video/JSM\_Executioner.wmv):

“Any human being that would solicit a child to peddle drugs, the law enforcement officials ought to warn him one time, one time. And the second time he’s caught – like me, love me, loathe me – what I’m about to say but I’m right, stand him up against a wall and use a 30-30 on him. (Audience applauds!)”

So what’s wrong with this picture? I mean, with the Words of Jesus in mind – “For the Son of man is not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them” – it’s not too hard to see that Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” has a way of influencing those under his command (his audience) to approve of that same “murderous spirit” that Jesus warned against. I mean Jimmy Swaggart’s “Christian” audience loved his “macabre” statement... and they showed it through their applause!

However, Jimmy Swaggart’s power to influence is not the same for all! Because it was in our exposé “Jimmy Swaggart Ministries’ – Three Words The Curse God’s Name!” that we brought out more proof of Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” by a few who had not been pulled into it’s murderous demise.

Carol And Jim Cymbala

You see it was back around the same time frame of Jimmy Swaggart’s 1984 crusade in Anchorage, Alaska, that the pastor of The Brooklyn Tabernacle and his wife, Jim and Carol Cymbala, were watching one of Jimmy Swaggart’s televised crusade services when Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” reared it’s ugly head. And the following is Jim Cymbala’s testimony of what took place next (http://www.fmh-child.org/audio/Jim\_Cymbala\_On\_Jimmy\_Swaggart\_sv.mp3):

“It was a crusade of his in an auditorium that seated about ten thousand (10,000) people. And the televangelist said, ‘I’ll tell you what I would do with a guy who molested a child like that. I would line him up against a tree and open a shotgun into his chest!’ And when he said that ten thousand (10,000) people, as God is my witness, ten thousand (10,000) people jumped to their feet and started applauding.”

Well, no sooner had the words of Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” spewed forth from his mouth than the convicting Power of the Holy Spirit fell on Jim and Carol Cymbala in such a strong way that they immediately had to turn off the TV! In fact the following, in Jim Cymbala’s own words, is what seemed to disgust him the most:

“I’ve been around church since a little kid even though I wasn’t always serving God. I backslid a lot, but I’ve been around enough. I’ve never seen a meeting where you’re cheering someone getting killed. That’s a long way from Calvary!”

Jimmy Swaggart and his “murderous spirit” is a long ways from the “Spirit of the Cross of Calvary” by which Jesus paid the ultimate price to give life... not destroy it! And, of course, it was Jimmy Swaggart’s attempt to somehow appease his own “child molesting guilt”, by condemning other “child molesters” to such a macabre death, that his “murderous spirit” took control of many in the audience. In fact, through the “power of suggestion”, Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” could have very easily influenced many throughout the years to actually carry out vengeful murders “in the Name of Jesus”. And that is a very scary thought!!!

Another perspective of Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” can be found in an incident that was documented in the February 28, 1988, Washington Post story by Art Harris. And here’s an excerpt from that article:

“...Then last year, according to a PTL source, Dwain Johnson, once a featured performer in the Swaggart ministry’s band, appeared at PTL with a sensational story: Swaggart, the musician said, had threatened his life after discovering an affair between him and a Swaggart relative. According to the New Orleans Times-Picayune, Swaggart told Johnson’s wife, “Tell that no-good husband of yours, if he is in town tomorrow, I’ll kill him.”

Now for clarification purposes, another account of this same incident can be found in chapter seven (7) of Let Us Prey – a book written by Attorney Hunter Lundy to expose Jimmy Swaggart and his scandalous ministry. And appropriately enough, the title of this very revealing chapter was “The Only Show In Town”:

“...Bakker retaliated by canceling Swaggart’s broadcasts on PTL, and Swaggart flew into a rage. To add fuel to the fire, Bakker was approached by Dwain Johnson, a musician who had worked for Jimmy Swaggart Ministries in the early 1980s, and who claimed that Swaggart had threatened to kill him after discovering that he had had an affair with Swaggart’s daughter-in-law, Debbie. Johnson’s wife claimed that Swaggart told her that Dwain had better leave town (Baton Rouge) or he would kill him. The accusations apparently were made during a lawsuit brought by the Johnsons against Jimmy Swaggart Ministries in an attempt to recover vacation and severance pay as well as royalties from Johnson's recordings, which were sold by Swaggart's company. Swaggart denied ever making any such threats.”

And last but not least, we have a third account of this same incident that was documented in Ann Rowe Seaman’s book Swaggart: The Unauthorized Biography Of An American Evangelist:

“Around that time [1980] Debbie Swaggart and Dwain Johnson began having an affair.

It eventually surfaced, and in June of 1982, there was a big confrontation at Donnie and Debbie’s house. The two couples involved were there, along with a friend of Janet’s and two of Debbie Swaggart’s relatives.

Jimmy arrived, furious, fired Johnson on the spot, and demanded that he vacate the house on Cyndal Street. Johnson left, and Jimmy turned to Janet.

“Tell that no good husband of yours if he is in town tomorrow I’ll kill him!”

Janet Johnson believed him. She rushed home and told her husband of the threat. Then she took her son and went to stay with a friend.

Dwain Johnson also took the threat seriously. He was packing to leave town when he heard a car drive up and saw Jimmy get out. He fled out the back, hid in the neighbour’s bushes, and watched through the windows as Jimmy went in and stomped through every room, looking for him.

The next day Jimmy called Dwain. ‘I want to tell you something. I want you out of that house. I’m going to give you until Monday morning. If you’re not out first thing Monday I’ll have you taken out on a stretcher. I won’t do it personally but I’ll have it done.’”

So, there you have a few of the details of how Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” threatened to kill one of his former band members. And the following definition will help us understand Jimmy Swaggart’s demonically inspired actions:

“Projection is a common defense mechanism where a person gets upset with a trait in someone else that he wishes to deny in himself. They suppress the knowledge that they have the same trait and externalize blame on the other person. They are highly sensitized to the unwanted behaviors in others and transfer their horror and anger at their own unwanted inner trait to an outside person. Much of their internal thought or words during an argument is focused on blaming the other person.”

Projection! What an interesting concept that describes/explains Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” towards Dwain Johnson to a “T”. You see Dwain Johnson committed adultery with Donnie Swaggart’s wife Debbie. And at the same time this was all taking place, Jimmy Swaggart was cheating on his wife Frances by committing adultery with an untold number of prostitutes and loose women.

Dwain Johnson admitted his adulterous affair with Debbie Swaggart, but yet Jimmy Swaggart not only kept his adulterous affairs covered up but dealt with the guilt by threatening to send a hit man to kill Dwain Johnson!

So, Jimmy Swaggart's "sin of adultery" created a "murderous spirit" towards other men who're involved in adultery.

And with "projection" in mind, it's now easy to understand Jimmy Swaggart's "murderous spirit" towards the "child abusers"; whether from the standpoint of "sexual molestation" or "drug profiteering".

But let's not stop here. Because with "projection" in mind, it was in 2004 that we produced our sermonet "The Monster In Jimmy Swaggart Threatens To Kill Gays!" as a direct result of the following words that proceeded from the mouth of Jimmy Swaggart during his September 12, 2004, telecast (http://www.fmh-child.org/video/JSM\_KillGays.wmv):

"I'm trying to find the correct name for it ... this utter absolute, asinine, idiotic stupidity of men marrying men. ... I've never seen a man in my life I wanted to marry. And I'm gonna be blunt and plain; if one ever looks at me like that, I'm gonna kill him and tell God he died."

Now isn't that interesting! I mean, if the "projection" pattern holds true, the reason Jimmy Swaggart's "murderous spirit" threatened to kill homosexual men is because he himself is having sex with other men. Amazing, wouldn't you say?

Randy Knaps (Her) And Jimmy Swaggart (Him)

But moving on along, let's continue our investigation on Jimmy Swaggart and his "murderous spirit" by giving a few examples that have absolutely nothing to do with "projection".

You see on the 11th of October 1991, Jimmy Swaggart was arrested for driving on the wrong side of the road, in a red-light district of Indio, CA, with prostitute #2 (Rosemary Garcia) as his passenger. And, of course, this incident took place less than four (4) years after Jimmy Swaggart confessed to his "moral failure" on worldwide TV on the 21st of February 1988 after having been caught with prostitute #1 (Debra Murphree):

"I have sinned against you, my Lord."

However, it was only a few days after having been caught with prostitute #2 that Jimmy Swaggart publically admitted to having thoughts of "murder/suicide" at the time of his arrest (http://www.fmh-child.org/video/JSM\_KillRosemary.wmv):

"If I hadn't of known I'd go to hell, I'd a pulled that car out in front of an 18 wheeler. I've never known such blackness. Such darkness."

Jimmy Swaggart loves those eighteen-wheelers, doesn't he! But this time he was going to use one to save Jimmy Swaggart the embarrassment of getting caught with prostitute #2 by killing himself and the witness riding in his passenger seat. I mean, after all, a dead prostitute can't tell the story of Jimmy Swaggart hiring her to perform sex.

So there you have one-more-good example of Jimmy Swaggart using his "murderous spirit" for purely selfish reasons. But, then again, if we consider the possibilities of the truck driver losing his life too, we end up with a "double murder/suicide" for the purely selfish reason of Jimmy Swaggart saving face. Without a doubt, it's all about "Jimmy"!

And now let's deal with Jimmy Swaggart's "murderous spirit" as it might serve him best in accomplishing his sexual desires through "kinky sex". Because it was in our sermonet "Attorney Hunter Lundy Exposes Jimmy Swaggart's Pedophilic Tendencies!" that we introduced the housewife, Catherine Mary Kampen, who really wasn't a prostitute until Jimmy Swaggart tried to make her one. And the following is her testimony, as recorded in Attorney Hunter Lundy's book Let Us Prey, about what Jimmy Swaggart wanted to do with her:

"He had been asking me from the fourth time he saw me to take off my clothes after we got on the river levee. He wanted me to go up on the river levee, take off my clothes, run around in front of the car. He would get in the driver's seat—nobody's going to believe—he would get in the driver's seat—and I thought this was really insane—and pretend like he was going to hit me, but the car wasn't even on. The ignition wasn't even on. He would just get in and pretend like he was going to hit me, and then wanted to know what it felt like if somebody was coming towards me, going to run over me."

Now just in case you didn't know it, there are some very sick individuals in the world today who enjoy watching pornographic videos that depict a female being sexually violated and then murdered. They are commonly called "snuff movies" because the life of the female victim is “snuffed out” in a very violent sort of way in order for the viewer to reach a sexual climax. And this is exactly what Jimmy Swaggart was trying to accomplish as he pretended to chase down and run over a terrified naked lady with his car.

Jimmy Swaggart and his “murderous spirit”!

But that’s not all! Because it was shortly after Jimmy Swaggart’s exposure with prostitute #1 (Debra Murphree) that Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” became very real to Catherine Mary Kampen in a different sort of way. And the following is her testimony, as recorded in Attorney Hunter Lundy’s book Let Us Prey:

“Overall, she stated that between July 1987 and January 1988, she met with Swaggart just under a dozen times. After it was over, she presumed it would be forgotten, but then in the spring, about the time that Gorman's photographs revealed Swaggart's involvement with Debra Murphree, she began receiving threatening telephone calls.

The first one came in March. A voice Kampen described as "genteel" and "southern gentlemanly" warned her on the telephone that she'd "better leave Jimmy alone. You better never say anything about Jimmy." She asked who was speaking, but the reply was, "Never mind. You just keep your mouth shut about Jimmy." She asked why Swaggart didn't speak to her himself, but the caller hung up.

More calls followed. One that especially scared Kampen informed her, "If you say anything or do anything you'll regret it. If you say anything about Jimmy. Because we'll burn you in your house. We'll burn your house down around you." Another call followed, and this time, her husband picked up at the same time she did. The voice said, "You'd better leave Jimmy alone or you're dead." Her husband was incensed, but she had not had contact with Swaggart since January.

Then, in April, about a week before she spoke to Bailey, a final call came. This time, the message was the same, that if she talked about Swaggart she was "dead," but Kampen was fed up. She said she replied, "Can you please repeat that because I want to make sure that my tape recorder got every word of it so I can take it to the police." The caller hung up immediately.”

Now, I think you’ll agree with me that a threat like that – “You'd better leave Jimmy alone or you're dead” – most certainly exemplifies the “murderous spirit” of Jimmy Swaggart... and even though it might have been made by one of his hired killers! In fact “murder” is a very good way of getting rid of the evidence... that is if it’s done in such a way as to not get caught!

And with “getting rid of the evidence” in mind, let’s go back to that fateful day in 1988 when Jimmy Swaggart stood before the world and confessed to his "moral failure" after having been caught with prostitute #1 (Debra Murphree):

“I have sinned against you, my Lord.”

That was Jimmy Swaggart’s confession... and it left much to be desired... that is if you really wanted to know the “sin” to which he so tearfully confessed! Because with

Catherine Mary Kampen in mind, we know that Jimmy Swaggart ain't about to admit to any sin if he can help it. And even to the point of getting rid of the evidence:

“You better never say anything about Jimmy. ... You'd better leave Jimmy alone or you're dead.”

So Jimmy Swaggart was tight lipped about the specifics of his “sin”, and that’s the very good reason the news media went into overdrive. In fact it was four (4) days after Jimmy Swaggart’s “tearful confession” that the Saint Louis Post-Dispatch ran an article entitled “Swaggart Trailed To Motel” in which many of the specifics of Jimmy Swaggart’s “sin” with “Debra Murphree” were uncovered.

Now, the interesting thing about this article is that it first documents the facts concerning Marvin Gorman having the pictures taken of Jimmy Swaggart and his prostitute that would later be presented to the Assembly Of God leadership who would make it public in a very demeaning sort of way... and they did it before closing with the bombshell that Jimmy Swaggart was frequenting two (2) prostitutes on Airline highway and not just one (1). And the following is an excerpt thereof (http://www.fmh-child.org/Swaggart\_Trailed\_To\_Motel.pdf):

“An attorney for Gorman, Hunter W. Lundy, confirmed that he had hired a private investigator, Reed Scott Bailey, in connection with the suit against Swaggart.

Bailey and another investigator visited a strip of motels on Airline Highway, between Baton Rouge and New Orleans, to investigate Swaggart, a motel resident said.

The woman who identified herself as Peggy Carrier, 39, was quoted by the New Orleans Times-Picayune as saying that Swaggart on several occasions had visited two Airline Highway motels, where he would park his Lincoln Town Car in the back.”

Since the publication of that article it has been well documented that Marvin Gorman hired private investigator Scott Bailey, through his attorney Hunter Lundy, to take the pictures of Jimmy Swaggart as he used the services of prostitute Debra Murphree in room #7 at the Travel Inn Motel on Airline Highway. And the report by Art Harris – “Jimmy Swaggart Straying And Preying” (<http://vimeo.com/46246054>) – is just one of the many.

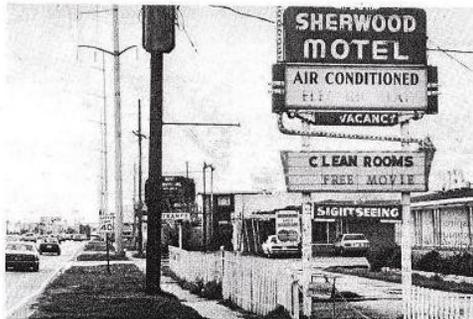

So Debra Murphree was one (1) of the two (2) prostitutes that Peggy Carrier spoke of in the Saint Louis Post-Dispatch article. But just who was the other? Could it have been “Suzie” who mysteriously disappeared right about the time Catherine Mary Kampen was receiving her death threats from the Swaggart hit man?

You see it was in the March 29, 1988 Globe article entitled “Jimmy Swaggart’s Call-Girl Disappears” that the very real concern for the life of “Suzie” was well documented. The article shows the room at the Sherwood Motel on Airline Highway where prostitute “Suzie” performed her services for Jimmy Swaggart, and then goes into the details of the threats she received a short time before her disappearance. And the following is an excerpt from that same article (http://www.fmh-child.org/Swaggarts\_Call-Girl\_Disappears.pdf):

Where sexy Suzi lived, worked...and was last seen alive

The scene of Swaggart's sins. An employee at the Sherwood Motel reveals that the fallen evangelist used to slip into this room (left), where prostitute Suzi lived. "Swaggart would park his car around the back, then climb over the fence and go into Suzi's room," the source says. "After 15 minutes, he'd sneak out, jump into his car and be gone." The hooker was last seen climbing into a car outside the motel “Once bustling with prostitutes and pimps, the section of Airline Highway – better known as Hooker’s Ally – has become a street of fear...

Locals say the mass exodus of prostitutes followed Suzie’s mysterious disappearance.

Ruby, another hooker and one of Suzie’s friends, says: ‘She has vanished of the face of the earth. It’s real scary.

‘No one knows what happened to that girl. I’m sure she’s been hushed up somehow...’

Another prostitute friend of Suzie’s, a woman who calls herself Peggy Carrier, also vanished from the area after telling a reporter that Suzie had disappeared and ‘could be dead’.

Yvonne Fleming, manager of the Texas Motel says: ‘They Got to Peggy... Peggy knew exactly what was going on with Swaggart. And they knew she knew, so they did something about it. She was doing a lot of talking to the media, and that’s not what they wanted.’

So Peggy Carrier, the woman who was quoted by the Saint Louis Post-Dispatch that quoted the New Orleans Times-Picayune as saying that “Swaggart on several occasions had visited two Airline Highway motels” has vanished much like her friend “Suzie”. And the question remains as to whether or not Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” took care of them both before they said too much about him!

But moving right along, let’s now take a look at Jimmy Swaggart and his “murderous spirit” from the perspective of sheer “greed”. And the following excerpt from “investigative reporter” John Camp’s book Odyssey of a Derelict Gunslinger will help us do exactly that:

“...Camp also describes an encounter with the ministry’s former Director of Spiritual Counseling, Noble Scroggins. Scroggins recounted an incident involving an elderly woman who wrote that she and her sisters had fallen on hard times and were barely existing on their meager social security checks.

‘The sisters were contributors to fundraising appeals to feed starving children. But facing hard times, they were unable to fulfill pledges. The letter asked if it would be sinful to commit suicide so that proceeds of their life insurance policies could go to the Children’s Fund.’

Scroggins ran to Swaggart’s office expecting him to immediately call the woman and dissuade her from any suicidal ideation. Instead, Swaggart casually set the letter aside. Scroggins resigned.

So did you get a clear picture of Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit” showing itself over the “love of money”? Well, just in case you missed it, please allow me to explain this real life episode with Jimmy Swaggart once again.

The story was told to John Camp by Jimmy Swaggart’s former head of counseling, Noble Scroggins, about how he had received a letter from one of two elderly sisters who made a pledge to the Jimmy Swaggart Ministries “children’s feeding fund” but were financially unable to pay it. The letter asked Jimmy Swaggart if it would be “sinful” for them to commit suicide so that the insurance money could be used to pay off their pledge. After reading the letter, Noble Scroggins took it to Jimmy Swaggart with confidence that he would immediately call and instruct the sisters not to take their own lives. After all, Jimmy Swaggart fully understood that suicide is an unpardonable sin that will take a person straight to Hell. However, instead of picking up the phone to rescue the sisters, Jimmy Swaggart casually put the letter aside. Noble Scroggins was so alarmed and upset by Jimmy’s callous regard for human life that he resigned his position on that very same day.

Jimmy Swaggart and his “murderous spirit”! But there’s much, much more to the story! Because on June 21, 1988, an article was published in the Enquirer with the following glaring headlines: “Grand Jury To Probe Savage Slaying Of Woman Who Left TV Church A Fortune”. And the following is the introduction to that same article (http://www.fmh-child.org/Swaggart\_Murder.pdf):

“Jimmy Swaggart’s ministry is at the center of a grand jury probe into the grisly murder of a 72-year-old invalid woman, says the district attorney investigating the case.

Officials had closed the book on the 1983 killing of Ida Lee Baugh, who shortly before her death had rewritten her will, leaving almost all of the $800,000 estate she and her husband amassed to the Swaggart ministry.”

TRAGIC: Patrick Baugh and wife Ida Lee rewrote their will leaving most of their estate to Swaggart’s ministry. He died five days after she was murdered.

Now isn’t that an interesting scenario? The perfect components for a murder mystery: Jimmy Swaggart, a large sum of money, and the “living donor” that becomes a dead murder victim! But there’s much, much more to the story:

“The grim story began in McGregor, Tex., in 1983, according to the testimony at the housekeeper’s trial. Elderly Ida Lee Baugh and her husband Patrick asked their friend Mario Scorza to contact Swaggart’s ministry. They wanted to leave the bulk of their estate to the televangelist work.

Testimony at the murder trial later revealed that Scorza, who works as a job placement officer with the Texas Rehabilitation Commission, got in touch with Swaggart’s Dallas area representative, Gerald Johnson, who assisted the couple in changing their will.

The will was to be signed on November 30, which also happened to be the day Mr. Baugh was going into the hospital for treatment of a serious heart condition. Scorza testified that both he and Johnson went to the Baugh home for the signing – bringing along young Jacqueline Warren, a woman Scorza had found, at Mr. Baugh’s request, to care for Mrs. Baugh while her husband was hospitalized.

Little did Mrs. Baugh know that her new housekeeper was a convicted murderer – who just four years earlier had been sent to a juvenile detention center for the brutal slashing death of another old lady!

Authorities released the girl in the custody of her mother after she had served less than two years.

Ten days after Jacqueline Warren arrived, and while Mr. Baugh was still in the hospital, Mrs. Baugh was murdered.”

“I’ve viewed a lot of crime scenes in my career, but none that made me as ill as this one,” said D.A. Fezell. “There was not a place in Mrs. Baugh’s bedroom that was not covered in blood. In addition to beating the crippled woman with the footrest of her wheelchair and picking her up and throwing her around the room, Jacqueline Warren slashed her face with scissors.

‘She went berserk, smashing furniture and windows. It was like a scene from “The Exorcist.”’

‘Lying on the carpet, stained with blood, was a booklet written by Jimmy Swaggart: “The Battle Of Armageddon”....’

Just five days after his wife died, Mr. Baugh passed away at the hospital.”

Now, what’s most interesting about this murder is that Jacqueline Warren, a known murderer of an older lady, was put in the position of caring for another older lady. And considering the light sentence that Jacqueline Warren served for her first murderous crime (less than two (2) years), it only makes since that she had probably been put on a treatment program for a “mental disorder” that allowed her early release, which would have made her a perfect “mind control” candidate for a programmed murder of Ida Lee Baugh:

“Using drugs and hypnosis on mental patients in a process called Orion, the CIA inculcated the desire in these people to open fire on school yards and thus inflame the antigun lobby ... The middle class is begging the government to do away with the 2nd amendment. I have found that these events have, indeed, happened all over the country. In every instance that I have investigated -- the incident at the women's school in Canada, the shopping center incident in Canada, the Stockton, California, massacre, and the murder of Rabbi Meir Kahane -- the shooters were all ex-mental patients or were current mental patients who were ALL ON THE DRUG PROZAC! This drug, when taken in certain doses, increases the serotonin level in the patient, causing extreme violence.” [Behold A Pale Horse, p. 225; Publication 1992]

Ida Lee Baugh signed over the will to her $800,000 estate to Jimmy Swaggart’s ministry, and ten (10) days later she was murdered. And that, knowing Jimmy Swaggart’s “murderous spirit”, sure sounds suspicious!

And with Jimmy Swaggart’s “living trust” in mind, the following advertisement was taken from the most recent Evangelist magazine. I’ve also

Many people have the mistaken idea that a will is the best legal instrument for the protection and designation of the distribution of their assets. However, by and large, that is incorrect. A will can be contested and is often changed by contentious parties. The very best legal instrument for this purpose is a Living Trust. Call us for further information.

WHAT IS A LIVING TRUST?

A Living Trust is a legal document to transfer all of your property, assets, cash, or whatever you desire from your individual name to the name of your Trust.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A LIVING TRUST OVER A WILL AND OTHER LEGAL INSTRUMENTS?

1. A Living Trust is one of the very best ways provided by the United States' tax laws to save on taxes.
2. You, the principal, have total control over your Living Trust, and you can change it as desired at any time.
3. A Living Trust can be secured regardless of your marital status or age.
4. A Living Trust is the best legal instrument to protect your family, to insure the distribution of your assets according to your desires, and to benefit the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

added a picture of Frances Swaggart’s BIG diamond ring that certainly must have come through one of these dead “living trust” donors. I just wonder if the donor actually intended for that ring to be worn by Frances Swaggart or cashed in to “feed the children”! Jimmy Swaggart and his “murderous spirit”! But we’re not even through just yet... because we now have a very revealing dream from “David” (name has been changed to protect the life of the innocent).

You see “David” was the type of person who, after having given his life to the Lord, wanted nothin more than to share the Gospel with everyone he could. In MANY situations “David” gave his last dollar, his shirt, or whatever it took before taking out the well-worn Bible from his back pocket and sharing the love of Jesus with his smiling face. “David” knew that he owed a great debt to the Lord for all that He had done for him, and he was committed to serving Jesus for the rest of his life.

So “David” attended the Jimmy Swaggart Bible College for a few years and became very involved with the Jimmy Swaggart Ministries. But then came the day when his eyes were opened to the reality that Jimmy Swaggart had flaws; his “ministry” was all about “the show” that would bring in “the cash”. It was NOT about preaching the Gospel for the sake of the Gospel. That much “David” knew, and he was still taking things “a step at a time”. But seeing Jimmy Swaggart as a murderer was the last thing that he would have ever imagined. And then came his dream:

As the dream began, “David” was grabbed by Nick Tracy (works in the JSM TV department – Nikki and Tim Tracy’s father, and Terri Tracy’s husband) and forced into a car where Jimmy Swaggart looked on as the abduction took place. “David” was then driven to a pond where Nick Tracy took him by force to the water’s edge as Jimmy Swaggart looked on from inside the car. Nick Tracy then forced “David’s” head under the water. While his head was being held under the water so he couldn’t breathe, “David” saw the countless skeletons of dead people that he knew had all died the same way that Nick Tracy was attempting to kill him. He couldn’t believe how many there were.

Somehow “David” was able to break free and come up for air. He then awoke from the dream – shocked at the new level of evil just revealed to him about Jimmy Swaggart... and greatly shaken by the large number of skeletons he had seen at the bottom of the pond.

After awaking from his dream, “David” realized that the pond where his murder was being carried out was none other than the Swaggart’s own pond that’s located on the property where they now live.

Now just recently “David” had the following to say about Jimmy Swaggart and his “murderous spirit”, and the probability that he has actually taken part in murdering human beings: “Hmmm not surprised at all. They are satanic.”

Jimmy Swaggart has gotten away with “murder” long enough! He needs to be held accountable for his actions! If anyone has information on Peggy Carrier, “Suzie”, or any of Jimmy Swaggart’s victims please let us know. We will keep it confidential!

So until next time, pray for God’s Truth to be revealed... and “keep on keeping the faith in Jesus!!!”
